

Sample test cases:

IN India – Traffic Law

Case Input:

On 15th March 2023, Mr. Rajiv Sharma was issued a traffic challan under Section 185 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 for allegedly driving under the influence of alcohol. The traffic police reported his blood alcohol content at 42mg/100ml, which exceeds the legal limit of 30mg/100ml. He was stopped at a routine traffic checkpoint in New Delhi around 10:30 PM. The police conducted a breathalyzer test on site.

us USA – Traffic Law (California)

Case Input:

On July 4th, 2023, Ms. Emily Sanders was pulled over on Interstate 5 in California for texting while driving, a violation under California Vehicle Code Section 23123. The officer stated that she was holding the phone and typing messages while operating her vehicle at highway speeds. No hands-free setup was detected. The citation included a first-time offense warning with a $150 fine.

GB UK – Employment Law

Case Input:

In September 2022, Mr. James Bennett, an employee of a logistics company in Manchester, was terminated via email for "underperformance" after missing a delivery target for one week. He claims he was not given a chance to defend himself, nor was any hearing conducted. He filed a claim with the Employment Tribunal, citing the ACAS Code of Practice was not followed, making the dismissal potentially unfair.

CA Canada – Rent Dispute

Case Input:

On February 10, 2024, Jennifer, a tenant in Toronto, received a notice of rent increase from her landlord demanding a 12% hike effective the next month. She had not been informed 90 days in advance, nor had the increase been approved under Ontario's rent control guidelines. She lodged a complaint with the Landlord and Tenant Board.

AU Australia – Environmental Law

Case Input:

GreenEarth Pty Ltd, a manufacturer in Brisbane, discharged untreated wastewater into a local river on May 3rd, 2023. The company lacked an Environmental Authority under the Environmental Protection Act 1994 (QLD). An inspection revealed chemical pollutants, prompting immediate regulatory action and a provisional fine of AUD 75,000.

DE Germany – Consumer Rights

Case Input:

On January 5, 2024, Mr. Felix Müller purchased a washing machine online from a Berlin retailer. Upon delivery, the machine would not turn on. He emailed the company, requesting a replacement under warranty. The company denied liability, stating that the damage likely occurred after delivery. He then filed a complaint under BGB §437 for defective goods.

FR France – Labor Hours

Case Input:

On November 18, 2023, a warehouse worker at a Paris logistics firm filed a complaint for working 47 hours a week over 2 months without compensation. The employer neither documented the overtime nor provided time-off in lieu. The worker argued this violates the 35-hour legal weekly limit under the French Labor Code.